PRESENT RELIGIOUS AND SOCIAL STATE OF THE TURKISH EMPIRE.

The profits to be applied to the FREE EDUCATION of Oriental Missionary Pupils.

Recently Published, two vols. 8vo., pp. 886, with Plates and Map, price 12s.,

Journal of a Deputation,

SENT TO THE EAST

BY THE

COMMITTEE OF THE MALTA PROTESTANT COLLEGE IN 1849,

Containing an Account of the Present State of the Oriental Nations, including their Religion, Learning, Education, Customs, and Occupations, with outlines of their Ecclesiastical and Political History; of the Rise and Decay of Knowledge among them; and of the Doctrines and Discipline of the Ancient Christian Churches.

BY A LAY MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE.

"Most cordially do we recommend this useful work to the attention of all who seek for information as to the past or present state of the East. It will be found a valuable companion to all travellers visiting those regions. In particular we would strongly recommend it to the attention of our clerical friends, who, especially of late years, must have felt the want of such an addition to their libraries. The immense mass of information which it contains in so comparatively small a compass, and its very low price, will render it as easy of acquisition as useful in possession. Besides its intrinsic interest, its value as a book of reference, with regard to the state of the East, cannot be over-estimated."—Record Newspaper.

"These volumes contain a large amount of deeply interesting information. They are eminently calculated to promote the godly zeal of British Christians in favour of those parts of the world to which they themselves are indebted, under God, for the knowledge of the common salvation."—Evangelical Christendom.

"It is a work which I recommend to all who desire to become better acquainted with the present condition of Greek Christianity."—The Rev. R. Burgess, on "Greek Christianity," to the Young Men's Christian Association.

"These volumes might not inaptly be designated a delineation of Mohammedanism, or of the Christianity in the East, or of the present state of the Jews. We could not wish a more luminous and masterly disquisition on the great points here set forth. The origin and decline of knowledge in the East generally is discussed with consummate care and ability. The work deserves a place in every library, both public and private."—British Banner.
